A pleasant place to sit and
be quiet

St George's Church Tylers Hill is an ideal venue for a parish away day, quiet day, or study day. It is a beautiful church in a lovely peaceful location. The church can be used for worship, prayer or talks. An electric organ is available for use.

Next to the church is a fully equipped modern church hall which can seat approximately 40—50 people. Tables and chairs are available for use. There is a modern, fully equipped kitchen with new cooking facilities. There is modern central heating and toilets.

Outside, there are splendid walks in the local woods and countryside. Car parking is available next to the church.

If you don't want to do your own catering, then food can be purchased at the local public house, the Hen and Chickens at the bottom of the lane.

For more details, please contact our bookings secretary, Jenny Allison, on 01494 776454. Book early to avoid disappointment!
